
Skateboarding is not just for the lads. There are plenty of women who also enjoy skating down the street. If you are one of them, or want to try out this activity, Skateboard Made Simple Should Be Your First Choice! Rather than trying to learn through trial and error, this app will take you step-by-step through the basics, showing you all moves needed to get started. Some of the things you'll learn are: • Gaining confidence on your board. • Doing a 180 turn. • Doing a 360 turn. • Doing a stop slide. • Doing a half-pipe skateboarding trick. The app uses high-quality videos to teach you all the moves through step-by-step demonstrations that are easy to follow, even for beginners who are setting foot on the board for the first time! All obstacles will be overcome, but only if you do everything correctly, since each move is broken down into simple steps to help make it crystal clear which moves you must master in order to progress further. Skateboarding Made Simple also features a unique map that will help you find skateparks in your neighborhood or city, and even let you search the world for skate shops. It also includes a point system, where points can be accumulated by reaching new skate spots. All things that help you build up your skating skills and become a better skater! Skateboard Made Simple Takes You Through All The Basics In A Step-By-Step Along With Videos To Help You Learn And Master Each Move Quickly And Easily.
